

AI Trianguli 30 cm Schmidt Cassegrain and unfiltered MX916 CCD

AI Tri has faded since my last observations on 1 December. No oscillations appear to be present in this run.

Flux is plotted on a linear scale, relative to an ensemble of comparison stars; a comparison at magnitude 15.6 is 0.093 on this scale. Error bars are 1σ .

Here are the check star data:

